Welcome our fellow arrowman! We are happy that you are looking to join us to continue in our brotherhood. Whether you have just moved to our area or joining us after a long break we look forward to meeting you.

Nisqually Lodge, #155, serves the Pacific Harbors Council that stretches from Longview to Federal Way and from the Pacific Ocean to Mt. Rainier. Our Lodge was created in 1994 by the mergers of Kcum Kum Lodge, Tahoma Lodge, and Tillicum Lodges. Our Council's camps include Camp Hahobas (Belfair, WA), Camp Thunderbird (Olympia, WA), Camp Delezenne (Elma, WA), Camp Kilworth (Federal Way, WA), and Camp Curran (Puyallup, WA). In 2011, we re-chartered 376 arrowmen. Our year round program includes three Ordeals, two fellowships, a leadership development conference, and an annual banquet to name a few events. We hope that you will take the opportunity to join us at one of these events. In addition to these Lodge events, we hold monthly Chapter meetings in your local area. In our Lodge our Chapters are matched one for one with our Districts. Most Chapters meet the same night, location, and time as your District's roundtable. These meetings are a great way to start getting back involved with the Order.

We'd also like to take the time to contact you to offer our welcome and find out how we can best serve you. Is there a best time and method for us to contact you?

Once we have transferred your membership, you will be included on our mailing list. The Raven's Wing is our newsletter and is published three to four times a year. Yet you don't have to wait for the mail to find out the latest from the lodge. Check out our website at <http://www.nisqually155.org> for the latest news, calendar, and publications. You can also sign up online for our email list which sends information on a more regular basis.

Again, welcome back. We look forward to meeting you and serving your and your unit's needs in the coming months.

Lodge dues for calendar 2012 are $15. Please enclose payment when returning.
